tts New Grounds Today-Third Baseman Latham Caught Napping-Other News, Sr. Louis, April 9. Latham has been laid low, but not by a ball player. It was a constable. In his numerous divorce suits he has em-ployed a young attorney of this city named D. Castleman Webb, Webb has brought Latham safely out of his many matrimonial squabbles. but all bills for services have been repudiated by the "Dude." Webb secured judgment against him some months ago. Yesterday afternoon a small boy carrying a box, and a big man appeared at the Lindell. The man explained in a suave voice that the box, which was marked "Arise Latham, compliments of Gen. Castleman," contained a surprise for Latham, and he had promised to see it deliv-ered in the third baseman's room. The clerk rang for the porter, and remarked that the ball players were receiving many attentions. The big man bowed, and accompanied the porter to Latham's room. Once inside he turned on the astonished porter, said he would take possession of everything in the agaitment. He further explained that he was a constable and the low was "still," The officer then packed all Latham's line follows and took possession. At a octock the gay third baseman returned, and when he found out the horrible truth, he swere harder than the army in Flanders. It was too much for even his genial termer. He had nothing to put on, and was compelled to walk acound in the corridor in his base, buil uniform, with the sarcastic words on his swenter, "We are the people." He did not have a shirt or a pair of seeks, but Comiskey finally came to his rescus, and he is now wearing a suit three sixes too big, and his trousers are turned up four inches. The constable has possession of $500 worth of wearing apparel. porter to Latham's room. Once inside he stable has pos-ession of $500 worth of wearing apparel.

The Brooklyn P. I., Club arrived home from their Eastern trie last night. They dined at Springlieid yesterday, but were unable to play a game on account of rain. Manager Ward speaks in terms of the highest praise of the entire team. He has seventeen men on the roll, and he will carry them throughout the season. "We've yet a dark horse over in Froklyn sure." said Ward. This atternoon, barring rain, the club will open with their old friends, the Actors' Amatour Athletic Association of America. Manager Harry Clarke has been making big irreparations for the event. He says that representatives from every well-known theatrical company in this city and vicinity will be present. Carriages will leave the club house at 1.15 P. M. share. Among those who will leave in the cavalcade will be: William H. Crane. Hoyt & Thomas, Mr. Rosen-mest, George Omley, Jean Cantleid and wife, teorge Richards and wife. James Barton bey, Pigby Rell, Mark Smith, and a host of others, Tony Prastor will come from Philadelphia to attend the game.

The Actors' team will be as follows: Paterson, pitcher: Cop, his of the "County Fair," carcher; Clarke of Francis Wilson's "Oolah," first base and capital; Smith of the "Shenandoah" company, second base: ex-Unipire I rank Lone of the "Modingh Bell" company, short stop: M. Carroll "Dixey Adonis" company, left field: M. Harmon, J. M. Hill's company, centre field; Courtney, "Shenandoah" company, right field. Charles Jones of the regular staff of the Players League will umpire. Van Haltren and Cook will be the Brooklyn's battery.

WHY WAS FORD REJECTED?

The A. A. U. will Have a Chance to Expints Their Action,

The question now agitating athletic circles. is: Why was Malcolm W. Ford's entry to the indoor championship meeting at Boston rejected? The subject is a general one wherever athletes meet, and the action of the Champion-ship Committee in not divulging the reasons for the rejection is causing some unpleasant talk, and, following so close upon the Cahill matter, induced one indignant boxer to ask: Ain t we got enny rights crtall? I'll bet dis Chimmy Sullivan put up de job, Him and Ford ain't good friends." While other opinions were not quite as pronounced as the foregoing there was a feeling that the committee have made a blunder in withholding the cause of the rejection, and a great many temperately said they believed the Ill feeling on the part of several of the A. A. U.

The body of the athletes seem to be with Ford in the matter, and were not unwilling to declare themselves so. But it was a difficult task to get an opinion from any of the promment men, each one seemingly having absorbed a vast amount of conservatism. It was either. "Really, it would be improper for me either. "Really, it would be improper for me to discuss the action of the committee." or, "I haven't the slightest ordinon to give. I haven't given the subject any thought.

Secretary liughes of the Manhattan Athletic Club was intercented just as he was about to go to a reception, but, although he is also quite a con-cryative, he postponed the reception in order to put himself on record against the rejection.

Before I start in on this," he said. "I want the receiving and the property understood that I am friendly

Before I start in on this, he said. "I want it perfectly understood that I am friendly toward the committee and believe that they would not decide on any action unless they conscientiously believed it was for the beat interests of amateur athletics. But I believe they made a grievius error in rejecting Mr. Ford upon no apparent reasons, inasmuch as his and Cahill's case now form ball precedents. I do not believe any committee should have such arbitrary power."

and Canill's case now form had precedents. I do not believe any committee should have such arbitrary nower."

"But." interrupted the reporter, "don't you know the circulars Issued by the Union have the clause: The right to reject any entry reserved."

"That is exactly the clause I protest against. I don't believe, as I said before, that the committee have rejected ford for any personal reasons. But the rule which allows them to take advantage of the clause is radically wrong, for it makes it possible for a committee to reject anybody—Westing, Conneff, or Jordan—upon any prefext they may see fit, and the rejected athlete has no redress. A man should be rejected for no reason except downight professionalism, and even then he should be allowed to commete under protest if there is a shadow of doubt as to his guitt. If Mr. Ford is an amateurand I do not believe that there is any claim that he is not—they are doing him an irreparable injury in preventing him from competing for an amateur championship of this country. If the committee have any doubt as to his number standing, they should make rublic what they know, fix a date for his trial, but, at all events, allow him to e-meets at Boston."

"Do you believe they could try him upon the old Springfield charge?" was asked.

"No, I do not. The National Association reinstated Ford, and I believe it would be a slight to some prominent clubs of the Union, and cause ill feeling that for the best interests of amateur sport had better be avoided."

SHE DEFRATS GRIMALDI AND SILLECK IN THE MUD AT CLIFTON.

Flynn Rides a Bad Race on the Favorite-Every Favorite but Spariing Beates-Vengeance Wins at 30 to 1-A Youth Who Didn't See the Races.

Sparling was the only favorite to win at Clifton yesterday, and the talent wore long faces on the way home in consequence. Just of Vengeance, but would not play him because Cleary, a stable boy, had the mount. The old horse romped away from bis fleid and won handily, with Student second, and Vevay, the favorite, third. Sparling outclassed his field in the second race, and after running in company with Gendarms, the despised outsider, to the head of the stretch, drew out and won bandily. General Gordon and Dalesman, who were backed for the place, were never in the hunt, Little Jim and Ban Hope carried the money in the mile-and-a-half race. Little Jim and Jim McCormick, formerly Jakie Toms, left the others from the start and ran head and head to the stone wall, where Honig's good thing at 8 others from the start and ran head and head to the stone wall, where Honig's good thing at 8 and 10 to 1, drew away and won handily. Little Jim was a dozen lengths before Reveller, third. Ban Hope bled at the nose and was pulled up at the end of seven inriongs. Grimaidi was lavorite for the Princeton handican, with Silleck a strong second choice. After komance and Silleck had raced tegether for three-quarters of a mile, with Specialty and Grimaidi second and third, Romance had enough and Specialty set sall for Silleck. Grimaidi was going well in hand, and on making the turn by the stone wall he closed up to within a longth and a half of the leaders. Lambey rode Silleck out, but Specialty always had the best of it and teat him a neck. Grimaidi was a poor third, the horse swerving badly in the run home, but Flynn's riding of Mr. Pulsifer's horse in the race was hardly up to the mark this young man is capable of, and the horse would have undoubtedly won with Hamilton, Taylor, or any vigorous rider up. Fnola was favorite for the two-year-old race, but Emity Carter, a line-looking lilly by St. Baise, carried fully as much money. Emily Carter got away in front and, making all the running, won in hand by three lengths. Enola was second and Florence third, Pomgan was favorite for the closing race and he was winning easily when Lambley went to sleep, rermitting A. Clayton to get up with Allemarle. The sixty-five pounds of colored boy gave old Albemarle a cut of the whip and before Dongan's backers could realize it their money was in the fire. As A. The Parkway Gun Club.

The Parkway Gun Club of Brooklyn held the The Parkway Gun Club of Brooklyn held the first of its tweive monthly shoots on the lexter Park shooting grounds. Cypress Hills. L. I., resterday. The attendance was good, eighteen members of the clob stepping to the score and shooting at seven live birds each. The birds were a fair lot and the meeting a pronounced success. As is usually the case on wet days the marksmen had to depend mostly on their first barret, the smoke of which hung and made second fre more than uncertain. Four shooters had clean scores of 7, and in the shoot-off at 3 birds. Messra, Hegams and J. Steinbeurser dropped only two pigeous, Blake and J. faces on the way home in consequence. Just before the sport began rain fell in torrents, making the track very muddy. The rain continued falling at intervals during the afternoon, and none but approved mudlarks had any show of winning.

The first race was won by the extreme outsider, Vengeance, with 30 to 1 freely quoted against him. The Fountain Gun Club, The race which decided the winner in yesterday a shoot of the Fountain tion Club, at Hattmacher's Woodlawn Park, L. i., was one of the longest and closest seen in a long time on any Eastern shooting ground. Although the birds were as a rule strong flyers, three shooters had clean scores of 7 and four missed only one of their birds. In the shoot off for first prize Dr. Shields. F. Purdy, and C. W. Jones stepped to the score time and time again, while the rest of the markemen, who were greatly interested in the result, crowded the plat form and the outged their favories with occasional words of advice hven Earny Keenig and his parapher nails were forgotten for the time.

Twenty live rounds I at been shot without a goose egg on the score book. The twenty slatt had the same result but on the twenty seventh the ice was broken. Shields missed and left Purdy and Jones to fight the rest of the battle. Purdy missed on his twenty eighth bird, while Jones killed his winning a well deserted victory with the bandsome string of thirty-five straight. Shapper's terrison, who gives great promise to become as good a shooter as he is a horseman, and ir Schwartz divided second price after outshooting their two opponents. A sweepstakes at three birds followed, Jones, Purds, and carrison tying for rest money and the last named winning on the shoot off. I'r Shield-defeared. A Batty in the his for second grize, and Blankley took third money.

RED BANK, April 9.—The annual meeting of the Monmouth Soat Club was held last night in the club house on the river bank. All the old officers, with the exception of Harry Edwards, were re-lected. Mr. Edwards, while out in the river flabing one day last summer with his typear old son, met with an accident which resulted in the drowning of the boy, and Mr. Edwards himself remained in a precarious condition for several days after the accident. On account of thes he did not feel like running for the position of Treasurer, which he has held for a number of years, and Samuel T. Hen-

BOWLING.

The National Individual Championship

Ever since the principal bowling tournsments came to a close last Pebruary the crack players in New York, Brooklyn, and Jersey City have been challenging each other to bowl any number of games from any amount up to $100 a side. Very often the men came together, and the games rolled were exciting. Still the cry went up as to who was the champton bowler. This question has been asked often, and many letters have been received by Ton Sus on this topic. The question could not be answered as the cham-plouship was probably never played for. The players came together quite regularly, but very often the heat of them had off days, and received their share of defeat. Not a few said Thyne was the man, then again bievers. the leading bowler in the late Pomerny tournament, was mentioned, while Jersey City sports clung to Frank Mulier as the man. This wranging has been going on for some time. Joe Thum, the famous bowler of the Spar-tan House, 401 Greenwich street, has now conceived the idea that a great national individual bowling tourns ment was the thing to settle all disputes.

He immediately sent notices to the principal bowlers, and at once had fifteen of the best men in this city, Brooklyn, Jersey City, and Hoboken entered in the

from players that would have no chance to compete with the men that had entered, consequently their applications were relected. Last night a meeting was held at the spar:an House to complete the arrangement held at the Sparian House to complete the arrangement for the tournament. A number of the players were present, while Mr. Thum looked after the interests of the absences. It was proposed to make the entry fee 510 for each player, to be divided into aveve prize. The winner will get 50 and a handsome gold medial, which will be given by Mr. Thum to the lucky man as the champion bowler. The second prize will be 100 to the lucky man as the champion bowler. The second prize will be played to the first hand sixth $10 each. In addition to this $10 will be presented to the player having the highest average in the fourtiering since. The money will the placed in the hands of the sporting editor of fur his this atternoon, and he will act as alakeholder. Buring the present month but two data a week will be open for the players to bowl, owing to the alleys being engaged. But after that all games will begin at Michael and Sunday alternoon. a buzz for an bour or more. Fitemiller and Bishop, both of Pittsburgh, were the only arrivals of the day. The rest of the out-of-town contingent will come early this morning.

All the arrangements have been completed, and everything is in-tendiness for the opening of the unique affair. The sounders will begin rattling promotly at $P$ M, and will keep it up until late at night. It is proposed by the managers to rush things, and there will be an intermission of only two minutes between contests. Thomas A, Edison has sent a phonograph upon which to register the dots and dashes. He is expected to be present in person also. The sale of tickets has already been large, and the hall, it is said, will be packed. Never before has their been such a carefuly of substitutes. The managers of the various offices are overwhelmed with applications from operators who desire to get away to see the tournament. All the electrical publications for several editions past have contained conspicuous advertisements calling for substitutes.

One Bantom was Cagy and So Licked the Other. There was plenty of fun at a fight between a rouple of novices in an up town club house yesterday afternoon. The boys were both "coming champions" in the loopound class, according to their friends. Spider Kelly would be nowhere when either beinney-against the Spider for $500 if he whip; ed the other fellow, whose name is Jack legarty, but who bears no relationship to the Philadelphia middle weight of the same name. Fogarty lent even an imitation of Jack lempsey's former opposent in style, but he maist the forty spectators name no much that they all put him down as a dever fellow.

A purse of 2% had been raised, with the understanding that the loser was to get $10. Mr. Reilly of the Twenty third word was the referred and Harlest "specially in him yes accounted the solvagores," had been made a marking lost, and given Jesury some stashes about the eyes another and given Jesury some stashes about the eyes another and strength ones that sent the inter down like they.
